NO. 32.

MIDDLEBURG.

Janon Lawhorn bought John S. Coulter's property at Yosemite for $325 and will move to it in a few days.

It continues to rain every day here and the condition of the corn crop is serious to say the least. Some fields are completely taken by weeds and will have to be abandoned. Our farmers are woefully blue and they have a right to be.

Q. R. Jones' annual Fourth of July entertainment at Oak Park will be held Saturday, July 3rd. The program will be out in a few days and will be interesting. County fairs, circuses and such affairs dwindle into insignificance when compared to Quince's 4th of July blow out.

Miss Emma Combest, of Boyle, spent several days with Miss Ruby Fogle. Edgar Cox and wife, of Alma, Nebraska, are visiting William McClure at Mt. Olive and Jason Coffey and wife at Yosemite. Samuel Coffey, of Jamestown, is here learning the banking business under our efficient cashier, Mr. R. B. Young. Jean and Martha, the little daughters of Joseph Elliott, have scarlet fever. Clarence Elliott was here from Mt. Olive Monday.

Elbert S. Wells, aged father of Sheriff Lincoln Wells, died Sunday afternoon and was buried here Monday. Deceased was 70 years old and was a kind hearted, good man and a devout member of the Methodist church. He had heart trouble and had been a sufferer a number of years. His death had been expected at any time and at about 6 o'clock Sunday evening while sitting in his chair the end came. Revs. W. R. Hunt and J. Q. Montgomery conducted funeral services at the Methodist church Monday afternoon, after which the remains were laid to rest.

BRODHEAD.

There will be a wedding in town right soon but for fear the doctor will object we will hush.

Mrs. Ike Storms and daughter, Miss Lizzie, Mrs. J. M. Adams and son, Shirley, are visiting in Grant county.

Mrs. David Helcher is on the sick list. Mrs. J. W. Hutcheson and Miss Bettie Hicks were in Louisville shopping this week.

On last Sunday children's day was celebrated at Union school house near Ottawa, good speeches, fine singing, a large crowd, plenty to eat and we are sorry to say about such an occasion but plenty of red liquor on the grounds or out in the bushes rather.

Owing to the wet weather farmers are greatly behind with work. Several had to give up part of their crops. Wheat is beginning to ripen. It is thought the crop will be an average one. Tobacco setting is about over, not as much of the weed has been put out as was thought would be.

Mrs. Maggie, wife of Will Arch Hays, of the Ottawa section, after an illness of several weeks of typhoid fever, died Monday and was buried Tuesday in the Providence cemetery. Mrs. Hays was a daughter of Tom Taylor, of Quail, was 17 years of age and had been married but three months.

The Danville District Conference of the M. E. C. S. met last week at Burnside. There were 15 pastors, several local preachers and a small number of laymen present. The conference was presided over by Rev. D. W. Robertson, district superintendent. The addresses were well prepared and listened to with great interest. The reports were all of an encouraging nature. The entertainment was royal and all visitors were delighted with their homes. One feature of the meeting was the special revival efforts to save men and women. They were like a section of the Salvation Army. A number of preachers with a cornet and a goodly number of singers held street meetings every night. They sang and preached to immense crowds and several made promises of a better life. A District Epworth League was organized with the following officers: Rev. J. P. Strather, president; Rev. Lon Robinson, 1st vice president; Rev. Robert Jordan, 2nd vice president; Rev. C. K. Dickey, 3rd vice president; Rev. C. A. Tague, 4th vice president; Mrs. G. D. Prentice, secretary; Miss Anna Darst, treasurer; Miss Margaret Dudley, superintendent of Junior League Department, and Dr. E. H. Pearce superintendent for the Epworth Era circulation. Men Past Fifty In Danger.

Men past middle life have found comfort and relief in Foley's Kidney Remedy. L. E. Morris, Dexter, Ky., writes: "Up to a year ago my father suffered from kidney and bladder trouble and several physicians pronounced it enlargement of the prostate gland and advised an operation. On account of his age we were afraid he could not stand it and I recommended Foley's Kidney Remedy, and the first bottle relieved him, and after taking the second bottle he was no longer troubled with this complaint. New Stanford Drug Co.

Women Who Are Envied.

Those attractive women who are lovely in face, form and temper are the envy of many, who might be like them. A weak, sickly woman will be nervous and irritable. Constipation or kidney poisons show in pimples, blotches, skin eruptions and a wretched complexion. For all such, Electric Bitters work wonders. They regulate the stomach, liver and kidneys, purify the blood, give strong nerves, bright eyes, pure breath, smooth, velvety skin, lovely complexion. Many charming women owe their health and beauty to them. 50c at Penny's Drug Store.

IN MEMORIAM.

Mrs. Mary J. Harp Blankenship was born Jan. 11, 1835, and was married to Henry Blankenship Nov. 28, 1851. She professed religion and was baptized by Moses Foley in 1856 and departed this life June 6, last, to receive the reward that awaits the faithful.

How often we fail to scatter flowers in the pathway of our friends and loved ones while they are living. We keep them to place upon the graves where it will do the dead no good. Now I had known this good woman for 30 years in her home, in the church, among her neighbors, and if she had an enemy on earth I never heard of it. She was the mother of 10 children, six girls and four boys, all of whom lived to man and womanhood, but two are now dead. They were all proud to call her mother, for she was a mother to them in all the word implies. When she was able she always filled her place in the church. The church will miss her and her neighbors will miss her, but none will miss her like her old companion. They had been toiling along together for 65 years. Oh what a long time to dwell together. It was a marriage in which the Lord said: "What I have put together let no man put asunder." Nothing but death could separate them. Children, you will never see mother on earth any more, but if you will seek your mother's God, make your peace, calling and election sure with Him, you will see her again where there will be no more parting. May the Lord help you to choose the good part that will never be taken from you.

I will say to her old companion: May the good Lord bless and comfort you in the few days that you may have to be separated from each other.

DESERVING OF CRITICISM.

In his charge to the grand jury sworn to try to discover the assassin of Ed Callahan, Judge Adams devoted most of his time to a tirade against the newspapers which charged that the court would not use the diligence it should in ferreting out the perpetrator of the foul deed and who paid him to do it. The charges were predicted on the fact that Judge Adams permitted the men run down by blood hounds to go at large on their own recognition, a most unusual proceeding. It was also charged that Adams and the entire court machinery, being republicans, would not be very anxious to procure an indictment against an assassin whose victim was a democrat. The latter charge was based on the manner in which the republicans have acted in the assassination of Gov. Goebel. They did all in their power to prevent the perpetrators from being brought to justice and their great and good governor promptly pardoned them, when there was a probability that even a republican jury could not be so unmindful of their oaths as to acquit the chief of the gang or the fugitives, if brought before a court of the governor's choosing. Judge Adams has laid himself liable to severe criticisms and his railings from the bench show that he is deserving of it. We predict that the men who shot Callahan will never receive legal punishment.

STANFORD has her full quota of troubles but thank goodness she has been spared the infliction of Mrs. Caroline Barrett Crane, the woman the State Board of Health imported from Kalamazoo, Mich., to tell our people what they should do in regard to clean lives. It looks very much like the board brought this woman to Kentucky to say things they or other men dare not say, and the easy way that she called Jailer Manner, of Lexington, a liar, when she knew he couldn't resent it, shows the character of her breeding. There ought to be a law to prevent such a sufficient number of persons native and to the manner born to point out our faults in a decent way without importing feminism from the North.

Nor content with the millions it makes by reason of the tariff, the sugar trust has been swindling the government in weights and being caught dead to rights has had to pay two millions of dollars for it. In addition to this it has been forced to disgorge ten millions to one of its pals, whose squealings might have made it pay many millions more. If the democrats were in power they would repeal the tariff for its benefit and force it to make an honest living.

THE National Liquor Dealers' Association in convention at Atlantic City claims to have discovered that the Standard Oil Company is furnishing the sinews of war for the prohibition movement. If so, this is the first good we have ever heard credited to the rapacious concern, and we do not believe that. In retaliation the liquor dealers have resolved to furnish money to help crush the Standard Oil Company. And thus again may good come out of evil.

INSTEAD of being in Africa killing harmless animals, Mr. Roosevelt ought to be at home to present a medal to John W. Guy, of Delmar, Pa., for his efforts against race suicide. He is 75 years old, has been married three times and 20 sons and 10 daughters call him "papa." His oldest son is 53 and his youngest three. One of his sons is a brother-in-law and a daughter is his sister-in-law, while he is both an uncle and grandpa to his children.

THE public hasn't heard anything of Beach Hargis' escapades recently. The reason is evident. A man can't cut up much in an 8x10 cell. His appeal for a new trial is now before the highest court, but it will be a sin for that body to grant it. Let him join his cousin, Curtis Jett, in the penitentiary and perhaps he too may become a saint.

EIGHT laborers on the Chesapeake & Ohio railroad in Virginia died horrible deaths from drinking beer from a barrel that a rattlesnake had by some means gotten into and died. The effect is not always as swift, but the result is as certain to those who tarry long and continually at the wine cup.

CHAMBERLAIN, the democratic leader of the House, when asked when Congress would adjourn said laconically: "The day before the vote ought to be taken on Bailey's income tax amendment." As Aldrich is in entire possession of the body, that seems about the size of it.

THE newest fad of the Virginia girls is to use the skin of the garter snake to support the open work hosiery that adorns their shapely limbs. The effect is said to be very charming. And we are not posing as a Doubting Thomas.

THE only two $50 gold pieces ever coined by this government sold at Philadelphia last week for $10,000 a piece; another instance of the ease with which fools and their money are separated.

WITH the commanding General, Evans, shaking hands with Gen. Fred D. Grant, the son of the illustrious father, as the former rode by the reviewing stand at Memphis, where the latter sat watching the procession of the small remaining body of those who fought for the Lost Cause. It looks like the war is over, even if certain G. A. R. camps persist in fighting over the battles of the war with their mouths 44 years after its close, when doubtless they skedaddled to the rear when the real thing was on tap.

MRS. HOWARD GOULD testified in her divorce case in New York that she spent $35,000 to $40,000 a year for dress and that it was not good form to wear a gown more than once. For a former circus girl this seems to be going some. She also said that she changed her entire costume as a general thing, three times a day and that when she got up early and staid up late she made four changes. She must have been the lightning change artist in the show and can not forget her old stunt.

THE State Journal is surprised that Broughton Brandenburg should be put on trial for forging a letter from Cleveland urging the election of Taft. Following the republican precedent in Kentucky he ought to be put on government pay roll at a big salary, that paper thinks, and there are those of us who can see where it is right.

Gov. WILLSON vetoed the bill that made competition in bidding for the school books possible and the American Book Co. has a cinch. Gov. Willson was the attorney of the tobacco trust. Does a similar umbilical cord connect him with the book trust?

It was charged in the Senate that the administration's policy on Philippine sugar duties was a move in favor of the American Sugar Trust.

Senator Daniel, of Virginia, will have no opponent within the Democratic party in his campaign for re-election to the Senate for the term beginning March 4, 1911.

Upon the recommendation of the Republican State Central Committee Gov. Willson has reappointed John T. Shelby, of Lexington, as the republican member of the State Election Commission.

The breach of promise suit filed several months ago by Minnie Rogers, formerly Minnie Stewart, against John Brown, of Nicholasville, for $30,000, was set for trial and everything was in readiness for the hearing, when the case was dismissed without prejudice.

Dr. and Mrs. J. G. Carpenter have issued invitations to the marriage of their daughter, Miss Lillie Tavis Carpenter, to Rev. Homer W. Three Ideal Farms In One.

The perfect form of real estate, all that is beautiful and desirable in country life, including locality, soil and improvements, is embodied in a farm of 435 acres, adjoining the thriving town of Bryansville, Ky., and near the famous Camp Dick Robinson farms, which sell at over $100 per acre. There are three tracts, with dwellings and improvements on each, suitable for three families desiring to locate on adjoining farms; or, if bought by one party, two houses could be occupied by tobacco tenants. The best equipped barn in the county, is on the premises, having water supplied by a windmill. The floors are oiled as residence flooring, the stables are large and well constructed, machinery for cutting feed being run by an engine.

Stock scales and a large tobacco barn are among other improvements. The land lies well and is of a high grade, well fenced, well watered a portion of it being matted with blue grass, in gently undulating pastures. Most of the land has been kept in grass and will easily raise 1,500 pounds of hemp, 1,800 pounds of tobacco and 60 to 75 bushels of corn. Such soil is the basis of all value, and the large profit, which it yields on the investment, explains why capital is seeking real estate, it being not only the best but the safest investment. This, together with the fact that population is increasing, thereby insuring a continuance, of good prices for farm products, proves that good real estate will continue to advance in price.

Besides the intrinsic value of a home, the locality and surroundings render it more or less valuable. Good roads, good schools, churches and good morals are important factors, in determining the value of a farm, because they contribute to man's substantial happiness, which is the main purpose of human action and the object sought, in every section of our God-favored country. These elements enter largely into the attractiveness and, consequently, the value of this property. It lies on a splendid turnpike for a distance of about one mile, the community consists of the highest grade of citizenship, the people being moral, cultured and exceedingly hospitable. The residences are in sight

No one could appreciate more than I the kindness shown me by the good people of Stanford while I was sick. Mr. and Mrs. William Carson will never be forgotten for sending me so many good things to eat, nor will I forget my good pastor, Rev. Taylor. The Christian Endeavor of the Christian church sent me nice flowers. God bless their good work for the Lord. I shall not forget the pastor of the Presbyterian church and the good ladies of his congregation, for they never forgot me. If any one wants a good nurse and good doctor call on W. T. Smith and Dr. E. J. Brown, of Stanford, Ky. T. J. R. Brown.
IN the Elocutionary Contest at Walton's Opera House Wednesday evening, Miss Mary Roberts, of Somerset, won first honors. Her subject was "The Fiddle Told." Miss Lattie Crum, of Danville, with "A Monologue," was awarded the second prize and Miss Lucy Walker Doty, of Lancaster, who gave "Lilly Sevosses's Ride," the third. The others who took part were Miss Duncan Foster, of Richmond, whose subject was "Aux Italiens," and Miss Marie Mahony, of Stanford, who told of "Aunt Melissa on Boys." Miss Nell Atkinson, who was to represent Harrodsburg, was detained at home by the illness of her mother and Miss Kate Alexander, of Georgetown, was also unable to come. Each of the five contestants did well and the judges, Messrs. P. M. McRoberts, K. S. Alcorn and L. R. Hughes, had to call in Mr. Geo. D. Florence to help them decide who were deserving of the prizes. During the evening Miss Em Smith, of Danville, treated the audience to a beautiful violin solo, Miss Mary McRoberts, also of Danville, sang very charmingly, Prof. J. W. Ireland, gave a bass solo and Miss Kate Newland rendered a piano number. Each effort was so well received that they were all compelled to appear for a second time. The crowd was not what it should have been but we are glad to state that the promoters, Miss Polly Duane Traylor and Mr. L. Wearan Hughes, lost no money in their effort to give our people a high-class entertainment. It is but justice to state that Stanford's entry in the contest, Miss Marie Mahony, entered as an accommodation to the management. When it was learned that Miss Alexander, of Georgetown, would not be present to take part Miss Mahony was importuned to enter and she very cleverly did so. She had only two days' practice on her piece she recited so well.

W. K. WARNER, the tinner and plumber, has secured the services of an expert workman from Chattanooga and is ready to serve you with any work in the tinning and plumbing line.
THE invitations are out for the banquet to be given Thursday, June 24th, and especial attention is called to those invited that the men will gather at the Christian church at 8 o'clock sharp, where the first part of the program will be rendered and a portion of the refreshments served. At 8:30 the men will march in a body to the opera house, so don't forget to be on time, so that the program for the evening will not be delayed. D. M. Walker, pastor.
